

Jim Morris

SVP of Finance

Jim Morris oversees all financial functions across N6A's global operation, including accounting responsibilities for N6A's United States and Canadian entities, corporate financial statements, financial analysis and data reporting, financial counsel, competitive market research and other strategic financial initiatives to support N6A's growth and scale objectives. Jim has nearly three decades of financial leadership experience with JP Morgan Chase, Barclays, Credit Suisse, Merrill Lynch and Lehman Brothers. Prior to joining N6A, Jim served as Executive Director and CFO of JP Morgan Chase's Global Wealth Management Technology Division. Jim holds a Bachelor's Degree from Binghamton University and an MBA from Baruch College. He resides in Nassau County, NY, with his wife and children.